THE STAIN IS QUICKLY REMOVED.

Upholstered furniture is everyday furniture and is therefore constantly exposed to the risk of stains. Many of these stains are persistent and cannot be easily removed. In our stain removal guide we provide you with useful tips on how to effectively remove common stains on furniture and carpet.

COFFEE STAINS

1. Dab the stain with a solution of approx. 30° warm, distilled water and mild detergent
2. Subsequent cleaning may be necessary

CHOCOLATE

1. Remove the chocolate completely
2. Wipe the areas with petroleum ether
3. Use a solution of about 30° warm, distilled water and mild detergent

RED WINE

1. Sprinkle the stain with table salt
2. Dab with a cloth moistened with water (distilled)
3. Then clean the area with a solution of approx. 30° warm, distilled water and mild detergent

DRIED BLOOD

1. Make a solution of cold, distilled water and a mild detergent in a jar
2. Pour the solution on a cloth and apply to the stain, dabbing off the blood
3. If necessary, you can clean off the area with petroleum ether

FELT TIP

1. Carefully dab the stain with cotton buds soaked in petroleum ether
2. Mix equal parts of vinegar and spirit
3. Treat the affected surface with the vinegar-spirit solution

NAIL POLISH

1. Use a small amount of petroleum ether for cleaning
2. Dab the stain several times from the outside towards the inside
